

COACHING AGREEMENT

TRANSFORM YOUR LIFE WITH LARRY WOODWARD

Please sign this coaching agreement and return before your first coaching session. This form must be completed to begin coaching.

This agreement is entered into by and between [Transform Your Life with Larry] and [Client Name] to provide coaching services. The coach and client will meet in person or virtually based on a schedule that is determined by the coach and client.

Our coaching services are designed to facilitate personal or professional development through a method of carrying out specific strategies. Below are the terms of this collaboration:

1. The client and coach will agree to meeting times and locations. If the coach needs to cancel or postpone a session, the client will be notified ahead of time. The client should also notify the coach in advance if a session must be canceled.
2. The coach agrees to never disclose or share information that pertains to the client without the written consent of the client. All information will remain private except in the case of a court subpoena. Please note that any legal protections that apply in therapy/counseling settings do not apply to the coach-client relationship.
3. The coach and client both have the right to terminate this contract in written notice at any time. The client agrees to provide compensation for all coaching services provided up through the effective termination date.

For coaching to be successful, the client must give maximum effort and exercise honesty. The client may be asked to complete homework or assignments during the coaching process. As part of the coaching agreement, the client agrees to complete all assignments to facilitate maximum progress.

In the coaching process, nothing that amounts to psychological, medical or legal advice is supplied. Coaches do not diagnose, treat or provide any assistance for psychological, physical or medical conditions. Please note that the client is responsible for their results during this client-centered coaching process. Client retains full responsibility for their actions, well-being, emotions, behaviors and the like.
